- Set suitable learning challenges

- We all have the potential to learn.
- Our children will live 'happy, fulfilling lives'
- Outstanding teaching and learning is our core focus
- Outstanding governance supports our schools
- Leadership and professionalism drives continuous improvement

What is Disability Equality and how does the Equality Act impact on schools?

Under the Equality Act there is a requirement for public sector bodies, including schools, to promote equality for disabled people in every aspect of their work. Schools will need to take an organisational approach to formulating policy and practices, which positively promote disability.

The Equality Act 2010 introduced a single Public Sector Equality Duty (sometimes also referred to as the 'general duty') that applies to public bodies, including maintained schools and Academies, and which extends to all protected characteristics – race, disability, sex, age, religion or belief, sexual orientation, pregnancy and maternity and gender reassignment. This combined equality duty came into effect in April 2011. It has three main elements.

In carrying out their functions, public bodies are required to have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination
- Advance equality of opportunity
- Foster good relations

This duty requires schools to adopt a proactive approach, mainstreaming disability equality into all decisions and activities. The duty does not just apply to disabled pupils; it applies to any non-educational services schools provide. The duty applies also to parents, members of staff, visitors to the school, local community members and to potential pupils of the future.

Schools can implement the general duty by actively reviewing all their policies, procedures and planned access improvements to remove barriers, with a view, for example, to greater recruitment and retention of disabled staff, greater participation of disabled pupils, disabled parents and community members.

What are the specific duties?

The specific duties require schools:

- To prepare and publish equality objectives, and (optional) an equality plan
- To prepare and publish an accessibility plan

Leadership and Management in our Schools – a commitment to inclusion and equality

A clear ethos is set by the local governing bodies and the school management, which reflects the schools' commitment to equality for all members of the school communities. The schools' advance equalities of opportunity through positive and proactive approaches to valuing and respecting diversity.

Governors take all reasonable steps to ensure that the school environment gives access to people with disabilities, and also strive to make school communications as inclusive as possible for parents, carers and pupils.

The school management works in partnership with others to eliminate all forms of oppressive behaviour; prejudice related incidents and discrimination.

All members of the school community, including pupils, parents, community and staff are consulted and contribute to the development and review of relevant policy documents. The school ensures the involvement of governors and takes positive action to enable consultations and contribution of all.

The evaluations of plans and policies are used to set equality objectives and address equality issues. The development of teaching and the curriculum are monitored to ensure high expectations of all pupils and appropriate breadth of content in relation to the school, local, UK and global community.

The Local Governing Body and Headteacher will ensure that the school complies with all relevant equalities legislation and ensures that the policy, related procedures and strategies are implemented. The Headteacher will also ensure that all staff are aware of their responsibilities under the policy.

Equality Objectives

Schools are required to have Equality Objectives showing how they are planning strategically and the impact this has over time following the duties of the Equality Act 2010. These general duties are to:

- eliminate discrimination,
- advance equality of opportunity
- foster good relations

Moor First School understands the principle of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity. The Equality Act defines 'protected characteristics' as disability, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, and pregnancy and maternity. We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Appendix A

Moor First School Equality Objectives

Name of School: Moor First School

Equality Objectives:

Statement 1: Promotion of cultural understanding and awareness of different religious beliefs between different ethnic groups within our school and local community

Statement 2: Actively close gaps in attainment and achievement between students and all groups of students; especially students eligible for free-school meals, students with special educational needs and disabilities, looked after children and boys.

Statement 3: Monitoring and promotion of the involvement of all groups of students in the extracurricular life of the school, including leadership opportunities, especially students with special educational needs and pupil premium.

Statement 4: We observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development.

Success Criteria:

Statement 1: Why we have chosen this objective: The context of our school is predominately White British with families identifying as Christian or no-religion located in a semi-rural village.

To achieve this objective, we plan to: improve knowledge, skills and attitudes to enable pupils to appreciate and value difference and diversity, e.g. increasing understanding between pupils from different faith communities.

Progress we are making towards this objective:

1. Further development of school's Religious Education curriculum using Staffordshire SACRE 2023
2. Moor First to include visits to local places of worship including church, Mosque, Synagogue.
3. Assembly rota and yearly calendar to incorporate festivals from a range of different religions

Statement 2: Actively close gaps in attainment and achievement between students and all groups of students; especially students eligible for free-school meals, students with special educational needs and disabilities, looked after children and boys.

Why we have chosen this objective: For all pupils to be appropriately challenged and engaged through well-planned and managed classroom support.

To achieve this objective, we plan for: Staff and leaders to be aware of children vulnerable to under achievement and to reflect this in their own planning and delivery of first quality teaching.

Ensure good outcomes for children with SEND or vulnerable to under achievement.

Progress we are making towards this objective:

1. School teaching and Learning Policy based on Rosenshine's Principles of Instruction
2. Further development of school formative assessment process, including use of new assessment papers, tracking and reporting.

Progress of vulnerable groups discussed weekly at SLT meetings- including discussions around pupil premium strategy and SEND.

Statement 3: Monitoring and promotion of the involvement of all groups of students in the extracurricular life of the school, including leadership opportunities, especially students with special educational needs and pupil premium.

Why we have chosen this objective: In 2022-2023 only 33% of pupil premium pupils attended an after school extra-curriculum club. We wish to ensure school leadership roles and the school student council have a fair representation from vulnerable groups.

To achieve this objective, we plan to: Monitor take-up of extra-curricular clubs and analyse data. Promote clubs for all pupils by offering free half termly attendance at one club.

Progress we are making towards this objective:

1. Monitoring of club attendance by PP/SEN lead including pupil premium and SEND
2. Use of pupil voice to identify clubs which are of interest to all pupils

Statement 4: We observe good equalities practice, including staff recruitment, retention and development.

- whatever their age
- whether or not they are disabled
- whatever their ethnicity, culture, religious affiliation, national origin or national status
- whatever their gender and sexual identity, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.

Actions to be taken Aims of the Equalities Statement

In addition to avoiding or minimising possible negative impacts of our policies, we take opportunities to maximise positive impacts by reducing and removing inequalities and barriers that may already exist between:

- Disabled and non-disabled people
- People of different ethnic, cultural and religious backgrounds girls and boys, women and men.

Eliminate unlawful Advance equality to Foster good relationships

- Children or staff who are gay or lesbian
- Pupils or staff who are pregnant or have just given birth

- The school is small in size.
- The proportion of pupils known to be eligible for free school meals is below average.
- Very few pupils are from minority ethnic groups.
- The proportion of pupils with first language not English is 0% Sept 2024.
- The proportion of pupils with SEN support is in line with national.
- Four children have an EHC plan and we have 17% SEN-2024.
- Mobility is lower than average and the school deprivation indicator is lower than national.

The school has identified the following issues that may be barriers to effective learning and successful working at the school:

- Many pupils require support with emotional and social needs including behaviour
- Special Educational Needs (Autism and Communication and Language)
- Children require support with resilience and independence

School's Commitment to Equalities

As a school we welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010. The general duties are to:

- eliminate discrimination,
- advance equality of opportunity
- foster good relations

We understand the principle of the act and the work needed to ensure that those with protected characteristics are not discriminated against and are given equality of opportunity. We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

The school recognises that Positive Action provisions in the Equalities Act 2010 allow us to target measures that are designed to alleviate disadvantages experienced by, or to meet the particular needs of, pupils with particular protected characteristics. If we decide to use these we will ensure that it is a proportionate response to achieve the relevant aim.
